SASS APPRECIATION WEEK

This week is SASS (School Administration and Support Staff) Recognition Week. Each year the Public Service Association organises Recognition Week to acknowledge the vital role that SASS staff play in schools across NSW.

Recognition Week is an opportunity for Principals and the school community to acknowledge the work the SASS staff do and to say thank you to:

- School Administration Manager
- School Administration Officers
- Library Staff
- General Assistants (school grounds)
- Teacher Aides and Learning Support Officers

On Monday we held a morning tea at school for our SASS staff to recognise their tremendous effort in ensuring the school runs smoothly. Thank you to our wonderful team!
